

REDUCED FARE ON REGULAR TRANSIT SERVICES FOR SENIORS, DISABLED PERSONS AND STUDENTS

Qualified individuals may ride the regular bus service for one-half of the regular fare. Reduced fare program is also applicable to passes (day, weekly, monthly and annual passes). These passes are available for one-half the regular fare.

All qualified individuals will need to show a valid photo identification. If you have a disability and you do not have any of the photo identification described below, you can apply for one using Application for the Annapolis Transit's Disabled Reduced Fare Program

Senior Citizens

Senior citizens 60 years and older with proof of eligibility can ride for one-half the regular fare on regular bus service for a one-way trip. Senior citizens (age 60 and over) must show:

- any valid government issued photo ID with proof of age, OR
- a Medicare card and any valid government issued photo ID

People with Disabilities

To ride Annapolis Transit services (excluding paratransit) with the Disability discount of one-half the regular fare, the following is required:

- must apply for and obtain a valid disability ID from Annapolis Transit or a valid disability ID from another transit agency with any valid government issued photo ID, OR
- for individuals UNDER age 60, a Medicare card and any valid government issued photo ID

Students

Effective September 2018, students (K – 12) who live within the City of Annapolis ride free during school months.

The following applies to all other students who live within the Annapolis Transit service area. A student with a valid school-issued photo identification card can ride for one-half the regular fare on regular bus service for a one-way trip. Student fares are applicable on weekdays, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

“Student” is defined as a person enrolled in parochial, private/public schools and colleges including the Naval Academy in the Annapolis Transit Service area. The student must present a valid student photo id with name, address, gender, the name of school, and the date it was issued.

CONTACTS

For further information, email (transup@annapolis.gov) or call 410-263-7964. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.