2019 Annual Financial Disclosure Statement for Elected Officials and Candidates for Elected Office

Introduction

The attached financial disclosure statement seeks disclosure of potential conflicts between your duties as an elected official or as a candidate for elected office and your personal or business interests. Under the provisions of Section 2.08.050 of the Annapolis City Code, you must complete and file this statement in accordance with the following instructions. Please note, this Financial Disclosure Statements are considered to be a matter of public record without the consent of the elected official completing the form. Home addresses reported in Financial Disclosure statements will be redacted if publically examined.

Who Must File

All elected officials and candidates for elected office are required by law to complete and file a Financial Disclosure Statement.

What is Filed

You must complete and file the attached questionnaire regarding your financial interests, together with any supporting schedules required under the terms of the questionnaire. In completing the questionnaire, you are required to provide dollar values for the interests covered by the questions. On the Financial Disclosure Statement you must answer all questions and sign the second page but only need to complete and sign the Schedules which apply to you, i.e., Schedules for the questions to which you have answered “Yes.”

When and Where to File

Fully completed statements and supporting schedules must be filed with the Ethics Commission on or before January 31, 2020. This statement must be mailed or delivered to the City Ethics Commission, c/o City of Annapolis Office of Law, 160 Duke of Gloucester Street, Annapolis, MD 21401.

On-Line Fill-in-able PDF Forms

Fill-in-able Financial Disclosure Forms are available at www.annapolis.gov under the “Government” and “Forms, Permits, and Licenses in Alphabetical Order” tabs. The form can be completed on-line, saved to your computer, and printed. The printed copy of your FD Statement must be signed and then mailed or delivered to the City Ethics Commission, c/o City of Annapolis Office of Law, 160 Duke of Gloucester Street, Annapolis, MD 21401. Adobe Reader (available as a free download) is needed to view and fill out the form.

Additional Information

If this form is not received by the Ethics Commission on or before its due date, you may be subpoenaed to appear before the Commission or allowable sanctions may be imposed by the Ethics Commission for non-compliance with the Ethics Law, City Code 2.08. Incomplete forms will be returned for the missing information and a new due date provided. If you need additional information or clarification regarding the completion of the statement, please contact the City of Annapolis Office of Law at 410-263-7954.

Definitions

The following definitions from Annapolis City Code Section 2.08.020 are provided for reference in completing the attached forms:

1. "Business entity" means a corporation, limited liability company, general or limited partnership, sole proprietorship, joint venture, unincorporated association or firm, institution, trust, foundation, or other organization, whether or not operated for profit. "Business entity" does not include a governmental entity.
2. "Commission" means the City of Annapolis Ethics Commission as established in Section 2.08.030.
3. "Compensation" means any money or thing of value, regardless of form, received or to be received by any individual covered by this chapter from an employer for service rendered. For the purposes of Section 2.08.070 of this chapter, if lobbying is only a portion of a person's employment, "compensation" means a prorated amount based on the time devoted to lobbying compared to the time devoted to other employment duties.
4. "Doing business with" means:
 - a. Having or negotiating a contract that involves the commitment (either in a single or combination of transactions) of one thousand dollars or more of City controlled funds; or
 - b. Being regulated by or otherwise under the authority of the City; or
 - c. Being registered as a lobbyist in accordance with Section 2.08.070 of this chapter.
5. "Elected official" includes the Mayor and members of the City Council.
6. "Employee" means an individual who is employed by City of Annapolis. "Employee" does not include an elected official.
7. "Financial interest" means:
 - a. Ownership of any interest as the result of which the owner has received, within the past three years, or is presently receiving, or in the future is entitled to receive, more than one thousand dollars per year any compensation; or
 - b. Ownership, or the ownership of securities of any kind representing or convertible into ownership, of more than three percent of a business entity by a City official or employee, or the spouse of an official or employee.
8. "Gift" means the transfer of anything of economic value regardless of the form without adequate and lawful consideration, whether or not it relates to the performance of official duties. However, "gift" does not include the solicitation, acceptance or receipt of any campaign contributions regulated in accordance with any law pertaining to the conduct of elections or the receipt of political campaign contributions.
9. "Interest" means any legal or equitable economic interest, whether or not subject to an encumbrance or a condition, which was owned or held, in whole or in part, jointly or severally, directly or indirectly. for purposes of Section 2.08.050 of this chapter, "interest" applies to any interests held at any time during the calendar year for which a required statement is to be filed. "Interest" does not include:
 - a. An interest held in the capacity of a personal agent, representative custodian, fiduciary, or trustee, unless the holder has an equitable interest therein;
 - b. An interest in a time or demand deposit in a financial institution;
 - c. An interest in an insurance or endowment policy or annuity contract under which an insurance company promises to pay a fixed number of dollars either in a lump sum or periodically for life or some other specified period;
 - d. A common trust fund or a trust which forms part of a pension or profit sharing plan which has more than twenty-five participants and which has been determined by the internal revenue service to be a qualified trust under §§ 401 and 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; or
 - e. An interest in a City pension plan, City deferred compensation plan or a college savings plan under the Internal Revenue Code.
 - f. An interest in any mutual fund or exchange-traded fund that is publicly traded on a national scale unless the mutual fund or exchange-traded fund is composed primarily of holdings of stock and interests in a specific sector or area that is regulated by the City of Annapolis.
10. "Lobbyist" or "lobbying" means the person or act of communicating in the presence of a City official or employee with the intent to influence any official action of that official or employee; or the person or act of engaging in activities having the express purpose of soliciting others to communicate with a City official or employee with the intent to influence that official or employee; and who expends (exclusive of personal travel and subsistence) in excess of two hundred fifty dollars per calendar year on food, entertainment or gifts for any officials or employees of the City.

11. "Official" means an elected official, an employee of the City directly or by contract, or a person appointed to or employed by a City agency, board, commission, or similar entity whether or not paid in whole or in part with City funds and whether or not compensated. Members of the Board of Commissioners of the Housing Authority of the City of Annapolis (HACA), the Executive Director of HACA and the Deputy Director(s) of HACA are part of a separate entity; however, in accordance with State law, and for purposes of the City Ethics law, the individuals in these HACA positions are considered City officials.

12. "Person" includes any natural person, or business entity.

13. "Qualified relative" means spouse, siblings, parents, children, and their spouses.

14. "Immediate family" means a spouse and dependent children, and anyone else living in an official's residence.

Other Reportable Interests

In addition to interests held directly, you must also disclose the following indirect interests:

1. An interest held by a member of your immediate family, if the interest was, at any time during the reporting period, directly or indirectly controlled by you.
2. An interest held by a business entity in which the individual held a thirty percent or greater interest at any time during the reporting period.
3. An interest held by a trust or an estate in which, at any time during the reporting period, you held a reversionary interest or was a beneficiary; or, if a revocable trust, you were a settlor.
